

My family listens and loves the programming on KLOVE as it stands today. There isn't another station in our area that plays and supports the same format. I believe it serves our community as a positive influence in such uncertain times in our country. We would be devastated if ANYTHING would happen to our one and only station we listen to. I thank you for your consideration in this matter.